

PUBLIC LECTURE

“The health of front-line workers in Christchurch”

Dr. David McBride

Associate Professor, Occupational Health

Dunedin School of Medicine

University of Otago

Tuesday, June 10

4:30 - 5:30

Room 032A

School of Medicine Building

15 Arch Street

Queen's University

UNIVERSITY of
OTAGO

Te Whare Wānanga o Otāgo
NEW ZEALAND

Dr. McBride (Lt Col) is Director of the University of Otago's newly established Research Theme:

‘Health of Veterans, Serving Personnel and their Families’.

He commissioned in the Territorial Army as a Troop Commander (RCT) in 1981. Since 1995 he has served as CO of the Otago and Southland Regiment and has deployed as a medical officer to East Timor and Afghanistan.